DAYS OF YORE.. TODAY'S HISTORY October 26, 1949

All of us who have had occasion to call at the store of Krum Bros, for our mail are saddened by the passing of our beloved Postmaster Clarence Krum. Constantly cheery and friendly, he made us happier by his greeting. In 1907 he entered business in the present Krum Bros. Store with his brother Sumner. On July 1st 1943 , he was appointed Postmaster, which position he retained until the time of his

Certificates of Literacy shall be issued to "new voters" as follows:

 To applicants whose cre-dentials show that they have successfully completed the work prescribed for the 6th grade of the Public Day Schools of the State.

2. To those passing the Literacy Tests to be given November 1st, 3rd, and 8th, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the School Library, Grahamsville. The Centennial of the Claryville Reformed Church is being observed by special services. On Sunday, October 23rd, at 2:30 p.m., Mr. Geo. Erts spoke on the subject "One Hundred Years of Claryville History" Next Sunday, at History". Next Sunday, at 2:30 p.m., the Rev. Mr. William Coombe will preach the Anniversary Sermon. Refreshments will be served following the service. Water will fall 500 feet, three times the height of Niagara, to generate electricity in a new $2,700,000 hydroelectric plant at Grahamsville, the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. of Poughkeepsie announced. Company officials stated that construction work has actually begun at the plant site. When placed in service in 1952 the plant will generate 25,000 kilowatts of electricity which will flow at 66,000 volts into Central Hudson's main transmission system and thus to all parts of the Mid- Hudson Valley. The plant will be at the outlet of a giant underground tunnel ten feet in diameter and five miles long, which will carry New York City drinking water down from the City's new Neversink Reservoir to its new Rondout Reservoir. The powerhouse will be equipped with a 41,000 horsepower water wheel and generator as well as apparatus for by-passing water when the wheel is not in operation or is not using all the water available. It is estimated that the average annual output of the plant will be 48,000,000 kilowatt-hours.

Jay Zanetti left for North Dakota last Friday where he has employment on an irrigation dam under construction.

Eighty-nine people have signed a petition for daily mail service on the Greenville-Yeagerville route between Sundown and Lackawack. The Democratic Club of Denning will hold its second Annual Dance at Small's Shop in Claryville on Saturday, October 29th, at 8:30 Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome and there is no admission charge. Mr. Al Baum, Yeagerville's only chicken farmer, has a new

Chevrolet truck

Now that Guy Curry has finished painting his house, a new chimney is the next project.

Qualified voters in the Town of Neversink will decide on Election Day, November

3rd, whether or not the Town of Neversink will build a Town Hall on Town property Grahamsville located in between the North and Sherman residences, at a cost not to exceed $27,500.00, payable out of Capital Reserve Funds of the Town. This property is part of the former Moses Kortright property and particularly described in a deed from Theda Taylor and others to the Town dated February 10, 1959

An article about the local "Townsman", written by staff member, Inez Gridley, was featured in the current Agriculturist. American Illustrations show a former Townsman crew at work; news correspondent Rev. Milton J. Harris; and Mrs. Ethel Hornbeck folding the paper for the Townsman. The fame of the Grahamsville and Peekamoose Shortline Model Railroad has now spread Nationwide. The November issue of the Model Railroader Magazine features in a special foldout section, some of the scenic details to be seen on the G. & P. The story, primarily a photo coverage, with photos by our "Own Sam Anderson", shows various trestles and mountain scenes; the Grahamsville Depot; the Peekamoose Depot and many other views of scenic interest.

EXECUTIVE ANNOUNCES DIS-COUNT CARDS FOR DISABLED PUBLIC TRANSIT RIDERS

Ulster County Executive Mike Hein announced today that Ulster County Area Transit (UCAT), the department that runs the County's public trans-portation bus system, will soon be issuing Bus/ Disability I.D. Cards to qualified disabled individuals. Card holders will be able to instantly demonstrate their eligibility to ride on any UCAT bus for half- price, everyday, between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Disabled citizens can obtain a discount card by visiting UCAT's headquarters, located at 1 Danny Circle, in Kingston, NY. Applicants who request a card must show proof of identity and either a valid Medicare Card, letter from a physician, Social Security Income/Disability (SSI/SSD) award or other official documentation. (Next Col.)

This initiative is part of UCAT's new, user-friendly approach to busing. It will be accompanied by a new easy-to-read bus schedule, which will include the discount eligibility and card information outlined above.

"We are examining all of our County operations in order to deliver services in a more efficient, cost-effective and user-friendly manner," said Ulster County Executive Mike Hein. "With this measure, and others, we are making public transportation a more convenient, safe and affordable option for all of our citizens, especially during these difficult times.

"Ulster County Area Transit is striv- (Next Col.)

ing for easy access to all our services for the disabled citizens of Ulster County. All of our vehicles have wheelchair access and in introducing our half- fare card, we will make it easier and faster to board a bus," said Bob DiBella, UCAT's Interim Director.

RED HILL FIRE TOWER NEWS

The non-season is over!
Although we had some good days, our faithful Guides trudged to the tower in a lot of "iffy" weather. Thank you to very one of our Guides and to all who helped us this summer.

John Gieson and Harry Cummings cut grass Doug Hamilton and George Elias did trail work, Carl Landon did computer work, Rick Pereira, Helen Elias and George Elias painted the tower steps and landings. Doug Hamilton made and installed a sign, John Gieson and Harry Cummings worked on the cabin porch.

The tower cab and ground cabin will be closed no. There is always a good view from the top landing of the tower.

Here's to better weather in 2010.

SCREECH OWLS

By Peggy DeWire

I must have hiked past that maple with a hole dozens of times but on that twilight walk a movement caught my eye. I stopped behind a tree to watch. To my huge delight, a family of screech ' owls lined up in the cavity. Three fluffy owlets stared out at the world and the parents swiveled their heads around from side to side.

Owls have to turn their whole heads to look sideways because their large eyes focus only forward, being fixed in a bony socket called the sclerotic ring. A flexible neck rotates the head 270 degrees for a full panoramic vision.

The yellow eyes are surrounded by a facial disk of stiff feathers that funnel sound into their ears. Like most owls, screech owls (Strygis asio) have asymmetrical skulls with ear holes at different levels to help the bird accurately pinpoint the slightest sound made by prey at night. Perfect for nocturnal hunters!

Screech owls are the only small 10" American owl with ear tufts. In fact another name is the Baby Great Horned Owl.

Screech owls come in two colors, red and gray, a very rare trait in the bird world where generally species look alike. The ability to grow two distinct plumages is called dichromatism which no scientist can explain satisfactorily.

Owl experts note: that a gray phase may mate with a red phase and their young can be either color. Two red or two gray parents may have some or both color babies in the same clutch also.

Screech owls have heavily streaked wings and breasts of whichever color phase; back feathers are solid gray or red. These pretty little raptors mate for life and both rear young together. Monogamy is rare among birds.

Screech owls don't make a nest of their own but find an old woodpecker hole or snug corner in a shed and bring in a few twigs for 4-5 pure white eggs in April, making owls a very early nester.

They're poor nest builders and dirty housekeepers whereas by contrast most birds are the opposite. Despite its small size, a screech owl defends its nest fiercely against intruders, especially raccoons, with threatening dives and warning whinnies.

Screech owls are nocturnal hunters with soundless flight and extremely sharp ears. They prey on mice and night-flying moths and insects. Screech mice and night-flying moths and insects. Screech owls also like fish and frogs which they catch in the shallows at water's edge.

Since this little owl's diet is mostly harmful insects, it's beneficial to people throughout its range, the whole U.S.A. An added bonus is that screech owls are sworn enemies of the destructive English sparrow.

I've always wondered who named the screech owl since its call is a soft mournful shivery sound in the night, definitely not a screech.

In the south it's called a Shivering Owl, appropriate for two reasons: it really deserves the sound and it gives superstitious folks the shivers.

ULSTER COUNTY EXECUTIVE ANNOUNCES DISCOUNT CARDS FOR DISABLED PUBLIC TRANSIT RIDERS

Ulster County Executive Mike Hein announced today that Ulster County Area Transit (UCAT), the department that runs the County's public transportation bus system, will soon be issuing Bus/Disability I.D. Cards to qualified disabled individuals. Card holders will be able to instantly demonstrate their eligibility to ride on any UCAT bus for half- price, everyday, between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Disabled citizens can obtain a discount card by visiting UCAT's headquarters, located at 1 Danny Circle, in Kingston, NY. Applicants who request a card must show proof of identity and either a valid Medicare Card, letter from a physician, Social Security Income/Disability (SSI/SSD) award or other official documentation.

This initiative is part of UCAT's new, userfriendly approach to busing. It will be accompanied by a new easy-to-read bus schedule, which will include the discount eligibility and card information outlined above.

"We are examining all of our County operations in order to deliver services in a more efficient, costeffective and user-friendly manner," said Ulster County Executive Mike Hein. "With this measure, and others, we are making public transportation a more convenient, safe and affordable option for all of our citizens, especially during these difficult times."

"Ulster County Area Transit is striving for easy access to all our services for the disabled citizens of Ulster County. All of our vehicles have wheelchair access and in introducing our half-fare card, we will make it easier and faster to board a bus," said Bob DiBella, UCAT's Interim Director.

More information on the Bus/Disability Identification Cards and overall UCAT services, including schedules and fares, can by obtained by calling (845) 340-3333 or by visiting online at: www.ulstercountyny.gov/ucat/index.html

DAYCARE FRAUD INVESTIGATION YIELDS ADDITIONAL ARREST

As a result of a joint investigation by the Ulster County Department of Social Service's Investigations and Daycare Units and the Town of Ulster Police Department, Tara Lober, 29, Kingston, was arrested Tuesday October 6, 2009 and charged with Welfare Fraud in the Third (Next Col.)

Degree, a Class D Felony. She was also charged with Offering a False Instrument for Filing in the First Degree, a Class E Felony.

The investigation concludes that Lober allegedly defrauded the Ulster County

Department of Social Services (DSS) out of $5,285.00 of daycare subsidies from June 2008 to September 2008, by failing to report she was no longer employed, thus making her ineligible for daycare assistance.

The Lober investigation also led to an audit and investigation of Wolf's Daycare Center, the center that provided daycare services for Lober's children. Melissa Scott, Co-Director of Wolf's Daycare Center was ultimately charged with falsifying business records, plead guilty and was sentenced to a conditional discharge. Scott subsequently made full restitution of $10,586.00 to Ulster County DSS.

"I would like to recognize the Town of Ulster Police Department, the Social Services Investigations Unit and all of the individuals who brought this to a successful conclusion. This arrest, once again, sends the message that fraud and abuse will not be tolerated in Ulster County, "said County Executive Mike Hein.

During the past few weeks, inmate groups and staff from Woodbourne Correctional Facility have donated book bags and school supplies to Fallsburg's Benjamin Cosor Elementary School. The staff Make a Difference Day program has fundraising events during the year so they can provide notebooks, pens, folders, and various school supplies in addition to warm socks, winter hats and gloves, and underwear for needy children.

NYSDEC SPONSORS FIRST PHARMA-CEUTICAL COLLECTION & DISPOS-AL EVENT

The Region 3 office of the New York State Dept. of Environmental Conservation is sponsoring a free, first-of-its-kind pharmaceutical collection and disposal event for New York State residents (including Sullivan County residents, of course!) on TUES-DAY, OCTOBER 20, 2009 from 8:00 AM - 1:00 PM at the Office Headquarters in New Paltz.

This is a free program, and pre-registration is NOT required. Simply show up at the NYSDEC Region 3 office at 21 South Putt Corners Road in New Paltz on Tuesday, October 20, 2009 between the hours of 8:00 AM and 1:00 PM with unwanted drugs and medications, including vitamins and supplements, for free and proper disposal of these materials. Identification is not required, and no questions

Pharmaceuticals, such as prescription medications, over-the-counter drugs and even illicit drugs should be disposed of properly in order to avoid potential contamination of the environment. Sullivan County residents are encouraged to take advantage of this unique, one-of-a-kind disposal program. For additional information, please contact Sullivan County Recycling Coordinator Bill Cutler at 845-807-0291 or NYSDEC Environmental Specialist Terry Laibach at 845-256-3141.

Specialist Terry Laibach at 845-256-3141.

No medical waste, 'SHARPS,' mercury thermometers or household hazardous waste will be accepted at this event. This event is open to residents only - no healthcare facilities accepted.

The Town of Neversink Republican Committee is proud to present its candidates.

Sullivan County DA James Farrell is currently Chief Assistant DA with 14 years of experience protecting us from criminals. He is ready to serve us from day one.

Sullivan County Sheriff Michael Schiff has done an excellent job serving us all as sheriff and certainly deserves re-election.

Supervisor Gregory Goldstein lives with his wife Linda in Neversink and has capably served two terms as Supervisor. He deserves your support for another term.

Town Clerk

Lisa Garigliano has done an excellent job as clerk and deserves re-election. She lives in Grahamsville with her husband Mike. Lisa recently received certification as a Registered Municipal Clerk for meeting the high standards of the NY State Town Clerks Association.

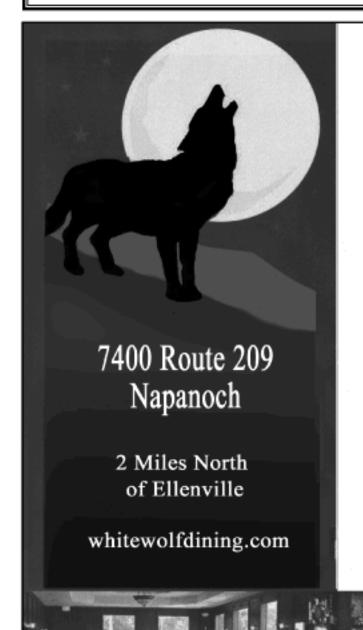

Town Justice Keith Zanetti has served the Town as justice since 1994 in a fair and respectful manner. He and his wife Pam are long time residents and business owners in Grahamsville.

Town Council Georgianna Lepke has lived in Neversink with her husband Herb for 40 years. Her extensive public service, knowledge, and experience will be valuable to the Board. She deserves your support.

Town Council Richard Coombe Jr. lives on the family farm with his wife Karen and their two children. Ric's knowledge and experience are valuable to the Board and he deserves your continued support.

Highway Superintendent Preston Kelly is a life long resident of Grahamsville and lives on South Hill with his wife Pat and their 3 children. He has 17 years experience with the highway department, the last three as Deputy.

Experience counts! Find the BEST candidates on Row B on November 3rd!

STUPAK, HINCHEY CALL FOR PROVISIONS TO PRO-TECT CONSURERS FROM ENERGY SPECULATION

In a letter sent last week to House Financial Services Committee Chairman Barney Frank (D-MA), U.S. Congressmen Bart Stupak (D-Menominee) and Maurice Hinchey (D-NY) called for strong provisions to protect consumers and the overall economy from the abusive practices of energy speculators. Stupak and Hinchey were joined by eight other members of Congress in encouraging Frank to strengthen provisions in draft legislation to reform the over-the-counter (OTC) energy markets.

The letter was sent to Frank in advance of a House Financial Services Committee markup of the legislation.

"Regulating the over-the-counter energy markets and new carbon markets must be a key part of any comprehensive reform of our financial industry," Stupak said. "It is troubling that the draft legislation, as it was originally proposed, continues to provide exemptions and loopholes in our (Next Col.)

Closing these loopholes will allow the Commodity Futures Trading Commission to better monitor trading, prevent excessive speculation and help eliminate the unreasonable spikes in energy prices which hurt American consumers. We cannot allow trades based on fear, greed and speculation to continue to happen at the expense of hard-working Americans."

"Any financial regulatory reform would be incomplete without provisions that safeguard against the blatant manipulation of the energy derivatives market by speculators who are out to make a profit for themselves at the expense of everyone else," Hinchey said. "The Commodity Futures Trading Commission wants Congress to grant it the authority to regulate the energy derivatives market and it's critical that we do so. The lack of proper regulation of the energy market has caused unnecessary financial hardship for countless Americans who have been forced to pay higher prices at the pump and for home heating oil while speculators reap enormous profits on the backs of the middle and working class. It's not fair and it needs to stop now."

The letter also expressed concern with the creation of a new, unregulated carbon derivates market for speculators to manipulate. Provisions inserted by Stupak into H.R. 2454, the American Clean Energy and Security Act, passed the U.S. House of Representatives in June, giving the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) the authority to regulate carbon derivates as an energy commodity.

In August, Stupak and Hinchey called for greater regulation and oversight of financial speculators in the energy markets to protect consumers from unnecessarily high energy prices in a letter to Gary Gensler, chairman of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission. Today's letter to Frank expresses concern over a number of provisions in the draft OTC derivatives legislation that would either exempt energy companies and financial speculators from regulation, or open up new loopholes for continued and expanded speculation in the nation's energy derivatives market.

The Organization for Competitive Markets has also endorsed the letter. A copy of the letter is available at:

With large issues such as these, it is imperative that we reach out to County residents in an effort to inform and educate them on the proposed changes, and to make ourselves accessible to answer questions. We are all well aware that these decisions will have lasting implications on our County Government and our communities, and we are making every effort to allow residents to have their voices be heard," said Rouis.

The Informational Town Hall meetings will be held on:

Tuesday, November 24, 2009 at the Town of Tusten Town Hall, Narrowsburg, NY at 7pm § Tuesday, December 1, 2009 at the Liberty Senior Center in Liberty, NY at 7pm

Wednesday, December 2, 2009 at the Mamakating Town Hall in Wurtsboro, NY at 7pm

The Legislature will also be conducting two Informational Town Halls in conjunction with statute-mandated Public Hearings on the 2010 Tentative Budget in the Hearing Room at the Government Center in Monticello, NY on Thursday, December 10, 2009 at 12noon and Tuesday, December 15, 2009 at 7pm. Rouis also indicated the County would be participating in "The Thunder Country Forum" about these topics on Tuesday, November 17, 2009 from 7-9pm on Thunder 102.1 radio.

Rouis also said the County will continue to embrace using technology as a means of transmitting information to the public. He said, "As always, the Tentative Budget and schedule of Legislative Budget Hearings will be listed on the County website as soon as they are available on Friday, November 13, 2009. We are also re-opening the E-mail Public Comments on Friday, November 13, 2009. Residents who are unable to attend a public hearing or informational town hall meeting will be able to e-mail their comments to publiccomment@co.sullivan.ny.us. The comments will be made available to all nine legislators, as well as entered into the official public

Mr. Sheeley's father was Francis P. Sheeley, and his grandfather was Moses Sheeley. His boyhood home was the house now occupied by the Harold Smiths on South Hill. Later the family lived on the farm now owned by Anthony Phelps. As a boy he attended the South Hill School under such teachers as Abby Divine, Ellen Divine, Lizzy Whitely and Salome Whitely. Later he went to Nancy Moore's Select School in the village. Afterwards he taught school himself; one year at Big Hollow in 1888-1889 where he had a small group and received $3.75 a week. Mr. Sheeley brought out some treasured photographs. One showed a slender handsome man with a dark moustache standing beside a pair of big strong oxen at the Grahamsville Fair. Dated in 1904, the picture showed Mr. Sheeley with his ox-team Pat and John. He won first prize with them at the Fair three years in succession. Another picture showed the tall corn in Delaware. Mr. Sheely thinks there is nothing like a yoke of oxen to work a stony hill farm where a tractor is likely to tip over and kill a man. The Grahamsville Fair had a big influence on the town years ago. SULLIVAN IDA GRANT (From Pg. 1)

"This grant will be tremendously helpful in making this facility a reality for our farmers. Currently, our farmers have to travel hundreds of miles to have their livestock processed, and this facility will allow them to spend less time and money on processing, and more on their farms and families- which is how to should be," said IDA Chairman and District Three Legislator Elwin Wood.

The County of Sullivan is the lead agency on the Southern Catskills Red Meat Processing Facility, collaborating with the IDA and the Village of Liberty, which will occupy a four-acre lot off Willow Lane in the Village of Liberty.

"My first priority as Governor is putting New Yorkers back to work," Governor Paterson said. "The Upstate Regional Blueprint grants are critical as we work together to create jobs, improve the economic security of our families and bring new investment and growth to our Upstate communities. One such grant will help build the Southern Catskills Red Meat Processing Facility in the Town of Liberty. The plant will keep jobs in Sullivan County, dramatically reduce transportation costs for local livestock producers and benefit some 200 farms in the region. This strategic investment directly responds to the unique challenges faced by our agricultural sector workers Upstate and will position the Upstate economy for future growth."

The Red Meat processing facility has also received Rural Business Opportunities grant in the amount of $50,000, and a $175,000 Rural Business Enterprise grant for equipment from USDA Rural Development through the efforts of Congressman Maurice D. Hinchey.

"The County remains committed to the success of the Southern Catskills Red Meat Processing Facility in Liberty, particularly as a means of diversifying our economic development opportunities. More than 50 new jobs will be created within the Red Meat Processing facility alone, and it is estimated that 200 local farms, more than half of the total number of farms in the County, will be able to utilize the facility. I applaud Governor Paterson's Office for their assistance in obtaining this grant, and thank Congressman Hinchey for his assistance in securing additional grant funding," said Legislature Chairman Jonathan F. Rouis.

HINCHEY HAILS FERC DENIAL OF NYRI APPEAL

Congressman Maurice Hinchey (D-NY) today lauded the final decision filed yesterday by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) that effectively kills New York Regional Interconnect's (NYRI) efforts to keep alive its suspended power line proposal. The FERC decision denied the request submitted by NYRI for reconsideration of the agency's prior decisions that would effectively prevent NYRI from tapping ratepayer subsidies for its massive power line proposal. Hinchey, along with U.S. Reps. Michael A. Arcuri (D-NY) and John Hall (D-NY), had (Next Col.)

written to the federal agency in July expressing strong opposition to NYRI's rehearing request and reiterating their opposition to the project.

"I applaud FERC's decision to deny NYRI's request. This is the latest in a string of setbacks that NYRI has faced in its failed bid to construct massive power lines across New York state," Hinchey said. 'NYRI submitted its rehearing request to FERC earlier this year, trying once again to pave the way for ratepayer subsidies for its project. FERC's unequivocal rejection of NYRI's position and repudiation of NYRI's arguments finally close the door on the possibility of ratepayer subsidies for this project. Since the project sponsors themselves have stated that the project is not viable without such subsidies, FERC's decision represents what appears to be the final nail in the coffin of this ill-conceived project."

In its "Order on Rehearing and Motion" dated October 15, 2009, FERC denied NYRI's request for rehearing of the agency's March 31, 2009 Order that effectively blocked NYRI from tapping ratepayer subsidies for its power line. NYRI had appealed the FERC ruling that refused to overturn the New York Independent System Operator's (NYISO) provisions for granting ratepayer subsidies for electricity transmission projects. The NYISO voting provisions, which were upheld by FERC, effectively prevent NYRI from gaining ratepayer subsidies for its power line proposal. The company suspended its pending application with the New York Public Service Commission following FERC's decision, indicating that without access to ratepayer subsidies, the NYRI project would not be economically viable.

STATEMENT BY TOM SANTULLI, PRES-IDENT OF NYSAC ON BEHALF OF NY's 62 COUNTIES -Governor's Deficit Reduction Plan Makes Difficult Choices, Avoids Cost Shifting to County Property Taxpayers

Last week, Governor David Paterson pledged that he would not shift the state's budget shortfall to counties, which provide state programs and services at the local level. Traditionally, when the state has faced a budget deficit, it reduces reimbursement for these programs, requiring counties and county property taxpayers to pay the difference.

The proposals outlined by the Governor are made out of necessity and are painful. There is no denying that. But the alternative would have posed great risk to the state's financial outlook, with the potential of not being able to pay its bills and issuing IOUs and a downgrade in credit rating, all of which would have long term devastating impact on the state budget and our collective economies.

County leaders commend the Governor for not simply shifting the deficit to local property taxpayers, but for offering a prudent blueprint towards stabilizing our economic future.

EXECUTIVE ANNOUNCES COUNTY ADDITIONAL STIMULUS FUNDS TO EXPAND SENIOR DINING PROGRAM

Ulster County Executive Michael Hein announced that the County's Office for the Aging has received American Reinvestment and Recovery (ARRA) funding to expand its senior dining program. The Office for the Aging will offer senior citizens age 60 and older the opportunity to participate in the "Healthy Portions Dining Program," at eight restaurants in Ulster County. Healthy Choices promotes making wise choices and eating proper portions to facilitate more active and vibrant life styles. The County will also provide extra meals, with fresh fruit, to homebound senior citizens through ARRA funds.

The "Healthy Portions Dining Program" hopes to increase senior participation in the Ulster County Office for the Aging nutrition program by asking seniors to dine out. While doing this, seniors will be able to increase their awareness of good nutrition through portion control and healthier eating. Up to twelve menu selections are available at participating restaurants. This new economic stimulus program offers extra revenue to participating restaurants and provides the opportunity for seniors to meet and eat in local restaurants.

"I am pleased that we have brought additional funds to Ulster County to assist our seniors with their nutritional needs, especially during these difficult times. These funds will also provide business opportunities for dining establishments throughout Ulster County. It is a program which contributes toward "Healthy Ulster" and benefits our residents and businesses alike," said County Executive Hein.

Interested seniors (age 60 and older) may pick up coupons at the Ulster County Office for the Aging, 1003 Development Court in Kingston on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10 - 11:30am and 2 -3:30 pm. There are a limited number of coupons available and they must be used prior to December

The Healthy Senior Dining Program operates as follows:

Participants must complete a registration form.

- The twelve menu choices will be distributed at time of coupon distribution with the addresses of participating restaurants
- Coupons are non-refundable and must be endorsed and dated by the senior at time of Coupons cannot be used as cash for other menu items. Coupons are not refundable or transferable.
- Seniors must present coupons to wait staff prior to ordering

The coupon does not include a gratuity.

 Participating restaurants, include: Brio's,
 Phoenicia; Fred' Place, Lake Katrine; Frozen Rainbow, Port Ewen; Luigi's, Walker Valley; Nibble Nook, Stone Ridge; Phoenicia Diner, Phoenicia; Primo's, Clintondale; Rainbow Diner, Kerhonkson

The Healthy Portions Dining Program will end December 31, 2009. Further additional information, please contact the Ulster County Office for the Aging at 1-877-914-3456 or 845-340-3456.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GUNTHER (From Pg. "This project has been a number of years in development," said Gunther. "The new Plant in Liberty will be a regionally significant development benefiting livestock producers throughout the Hudson Valley region. I thank the Governor Paterson and Empire State Development for this support."

The Sullivan County IDA will use this grant funding to complete the creation of a meat processing plant for existing livestock producers in the Village of Liberty. The project will dramatically reduce the transportation costs for producers. The cost of the project is $1.6 million. It is estimated that the plant will retain 50 livestock production jobs and benefit 200 existing farms.

The Upstate Regional Blueprint Fund invests in projects that advance local development and small businesses, including making improvements to industrial parks and providing loans for the purchase of equipment, real estate or other needs. Eligible applicants include municipalities, businesses, academic institutions, and non-profits and awards will range from $100,000 to $5 million. The program gives a preference to requests for loans, whose principal repayments can be recycled for future projects. Empire State Development (ESD) administers the Blueprint Fund, which works to attract businesses, improve commerce and boost local economies.

FIFTH ANNUAL "ART IN SIXES' AT ALLIANCE GALLERY

Giving art lovers a head start on their holiday gift-giving, "Art in Sixes," an exhibition of small works by local artists, opens at the Alliance Gallery in Narrowsburg on Saturday, November 14, with a reception from 2 - 4 p.m. The exhibit will be on view through December 23.

An annual year-end tradition that has evolved over the past five years, "Art in Sixes" is comprised of works no larger than six inches in any direction. This group exhibition includes a large number of artists in all media including paintings, drawings, sculpture, fibers, and more. All works of art are for sale.

Gallery director Rocky Pinciotti says it is the innovation and quality of the work that keeps the exhibit fresh each year. "The underlying beauty of the collection is the wide variety of mediums that are represented. Painting, sculpture, collage, photography, ceramics, and prints all co-exist harmoniously in the Alliance Gallery space. These small works are affordable, collectable gems that sparkle this time of year."

This exhibit, free and open to the public, is sponsored by the Delaware Valley Arts Alliance, the Arts Council for Sullivan County, NY, and is made possible in part with funding from the Visual Arts Program of the New York State Council on the Arts.

Alliance Gallery is located at the Delaware Arts Center at 37 Main Street, Narrowsburg, NY. Hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information about the exhibit call (845) 252-7576 or visit www.ArtsAllianceSite.org.

TWO EXHIBITS AT ASK IN NOVEMBER

Two exhibits of outstanding works in textiles will be on display at the Arts Society of Kingston (ASK) this November with the exhibits "Tapestries Celebrating Henry's Hudson from The Wednesday Group." There are 26 individual works slated for exhibit with varied subject matter, all focused on the Hudson. Pieces include reference to the early cultural clashes during Hudson's 23-day voyage, the contemporary Little Red Lighthouse under the George Washington Bridge, modern sailing vessels, historic schooners and iceboats. Images range from the narrative legend of sleepy hollow, a portrait of Henry Hudson, to architecture both manmade and natural, with land and waterscape views. Depictions of native flora and fauna range from apple orchards overlooking the river to dragonflies along marshy shores.

"Colorscapes: The Art of Susan Minier" features striking and vibrant fabric collage pictures by artist Susan Minier.

Both shows will be on view from November 7 - 28, and will share an opening reception on November 7th, from 5 - 8 pm as part of Kingston's "First Setundar," out recentions.

Saturday" art receptions.

ASK Gallery Hours are Tuesday thru Saturday from 1 to 6 pm. Visit www.askforarts.org or call 845-338-0331 for more information about ASK and its programs. To view Minier's artwork, visit her website at www.susanminier.com

Knarf's "Classic Movie" Trivia The Grapes Of Wrath, (1940) John Ernst Steinbeck, Jr's "The Grapes Of Wrath" could have been written for today. The film describes plight of the economic slavery of today's foreclosures set in the past. We see our friends in this plight similar to that of the Oklahoma farmers dispossessed during the "Great Depression," and how their fight for better lives in California reminds us of our struggle in our difficult economic situation of today. Cast: Henry Fonda, Jane Darwell, and John Carradine. Dir: John Ford. BW-129 mins, TV-G, CC, Sunday, October 25, 2009 @ 12:00 PM on What's going on in the Gnome Gneighborhood™ this week?

Election Day is almost here please get out and Happy Birthday to the United Nations! October 24 is "United Nations Day." The United Nations is an international organization founded in 1945 after the Second World War with 51 countries who were committed to maintaining international peace and security, developing friendly relations among nations and promoting social progress, better living standards and human rights. Due to its unique international character and the powers vested in its founding Charter, the organization can take action on a wide range of issues and provide a forum for its 192 Member States to express their views through the General Assembly, the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council and other bodies and committees. The work of the United Nations reaches every corner of the globe. Although best known for peacekeeping and humanitarian assistance, there are many other ways the United Nations and its System of specialized agencies' funds and programmers affect our lives. The UN is a primary tool of globalization and serves as the police force of the world, along with the International Monetary Fund, whose function is to decides which countries are deserving of investment loans. The World Bank owes no allegiance to any country and is the depository of the rich elite and world's major corporations. The five trade organizations that govern all labor and trade in the world are, APAC- Asian Pacific American Coalition; EU- European Union; NATA-North African Trade Alliance; SATA- South African Trade Alliance, and lastly the NAFTA- North American Free Trade Alliance, which the 'super rich' are trying to transform into the NAU- North American Union.

All good Gnomes prefer US Sovereignty and its Constitution, Bill of Rights, and the Declaration of Independence.

Bye,

Knarf Odnamoc
